

Mississippi Queen – Mountain

(Main Riff)

[A][B] [G][E] (x2)

[D] Mississippi Queen, if you know what I mean.

[D] Mississippi Queen, she taught me everything.

[G] Way down around Vicksburg, around Louisiana way,

[D] Lived a Cajun lady, called the Mississippi Queen.

[A] You know she was a dancer, [G] she moved better on wine.

While the [D] rest of those dudes where gettin their kicks,

[A] Boy, [G] I beg your pardon I was gettin mine.

[D] Mississippi Queen, if you know what I mean.

[D] Mississippi Queen, she taught me everything.

[G] This lady she asked me, if I would be her man.

[D] You know that I told her, I'd do what I can,

[A] To keep her lookin pretty, [G] buy her dresses that shine.

While the [D] rest of them dudes where makin their bread,

[A] Boy, [G] I beg your pardon I was losin mine.

[A] You know she was a dancer, [G] she moved better on wine,

While the [D] rest of those dudes where gettin their kicks,

[A] Boy, [G] I beg your pardon I was gettin mine.

Ohhhhh! [D] Mississippi Queen. [D]
