[G] Marvin, [Em7] [C] he was a [D] friend of mine,
And he could [C] sing a song, [Cmadd9] [C] his heart in [D] every line.
[G] Marvin, [Em7] [C] sang of the [D] joy and pain,
He opened [C] up our minds, [Cmadd9] [C] and I still can [D] hear him say;

Aww, [Em] talk to me, so [Am7] you can see; what's [Am7] going [D] on.
[Em] Say you will, [Am7] sing your songs, for [Cmadd9] evermore, evermore.

Gonna be some [G] sweet sounds, [Em] coming down, [C] on the [Am7] night[D]shift.
I bet you're [C] singing proud, oh, I bet you'll [G] pull a crowd. [Am7][D]
Gonna be a [G] long night; it's gonna be [Em] alright, [C] on the [Am7] night[D]shift.

Oh, you found [C] another home, I know you're [D] not alone on the [G] nightshift.
You found [C] another home, I know you're [D] not alone on the [G] nightshift.
