

Welly Boot Song – Billy Connolly

(Intro) [G] [G]

If it [G] wis'nah for yer [D] wellies [C] where wid ye [D] be?
[G] You'd be in the hospital or [F] infirma-[D]ry,
Cos [G] you wid have a dose o' the flu, or even [C] pleuri-[G]sy,
If ye [G] did'nah have yer feet in yer [D] well-[G]ies

[G] Wellies they are wonderful. Oh! [C] Wellies they are [G] swell,
Cos [G] they keep oot the water, and [C] they keep in the [D] smell,
And [G] when you're sittin' in a room [C] you can always [G] tell,
When [G] some bugger takes aff his [D] well-[G]ies

If it [G] wis'nah for yer [D] wellies [C] where wid ye [D] be?
[G] You'd be in the hospital or [F] infirma-[D]ry,
Cos [G] you wid have a dose o' the flu, or even [C] pleuri-[G]sy,
If ye [G] did'nah have yer feet in yer [D] well-[G]ies

Or, [G] when you're oot walkin' in the [C] country wi' a [G] bird, [G] And you're strollin' over fields, just [C] like a fermer's [D] herd, and [G] someb'dy shouts, "KEEP AFF THE GRASS!", and [C] you think how ab-[G]surd, and SQUELCH! [N.C.] You find why fermers all [D] wear well-[G]ies

If it [G] wis'nah for yer [D] wellies [C] where wid ye [D] be?
[G] You'd be in the hospital or [F] infirma-[D]ry,
Cos [G] you wid have a dose o' the flu, or even [C] pleuri-[G]sy,
If ye [G] did'nah have yer feet in yer [D] well-[G]ies

There's [G] fishermen and firemen, there's [C] farmers'n' [G] ah, [G] Men oot digging ditches and [C] workin' in the [D] snow,
This [G] country it wid grind t'a halt, and [C] no a thing wid [G] grow,
If it [G] wis'nah for the workers in their [D] well-[G]ies

If it [G] wis'nah for yer [D] wellies [C] where wid ye [D] be?
[G] You'd be in the hospital or [F] infirma-[D]ry,
Cos [G] you wid have a dose o' the flu, or even [C] pleuri-[G]sy,
If ye [G] did'nah have yer feet in yer [D] well-[G]ies

If it [G] wis'nah for yer [D] wellies [C] where wid ye [D] be?
[G] You'd be in the hospital or [F] infirma-[D]ry,
Cos [G] you wid have a dose o' the flu, or even [C] pleuri-[G]sy,
If ye [G] did'nah have yer feet [N.C.] in yer [D] well-[D7]-[G]ies
